

that part of the vineyard. Of late our time has been so taken up that we have failed to chronicle some very important matters but we know that the recording angel has them all right. We are trying to assist the brethren of this charge to secure a pastor to succeed us in this work. I want to say for the brethren of this charge that a better people cannot be found anywhere on earth. The field is large and promising and the pastor who succeeds us here will find plenty to do but the hardest work is done and when I find the closing months of my five years' labors among them are almost here I feel sad to leave them, yet I rejoice to know that our labors were blessed by the Lord. When I came here I found about one hundred and twenty members enrolled. I have taken in about one hundred and twenty-seven during my labors here. They had two houses of worship, two more have been added in the last three years worth some $1200. each, with good prospects for more if careful and consecrated work is done. We may have more to say concerning this work in the future.

The Brethren of Clovercreek will hold their communion services on the 30th of October. There will likely be preparatory services a few evenings prior to that time. Come over and help us.

New Enterprise will hold their communion on the eve of November 6th. We earnestly solicit the presence of all the brethren of this charge in particular, and as many from adjoining congregations as can meet with us will greatly encourage us and add to the interest of the meeting.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST has been published weekly since 1728—170 years—and is unique in illustration and literary excellence.

AMERICAN KINGS AND THEIR KINGDOMS

Will tell the stories of the several greatest money-monarchs of our country—how they acquired and how they retain their power.

THE POST'S SERIES OF PRACTICAL SERMONS

By the great preachers of the world; it gives real, personal non-sectarian help toward better living.

UNDER THE EVENING LAMP HALF-HOURS WITH SONG AND STORY

A page bearing this title gives an entertaining collection of short bits of that sort of reading that one does not care to miss—anecdotes, information, the strange and the wonderful are all touched upon interestingly.

THE PASSING OF THE OLD NAVY

Two charming articles on the romance, antique customs and duties of the old trading-vessels, the progress of modern naval science, and how invention has killed much of the poetry of sea life. One of the best American illustrators of marine life is now painting pictures that will accompany this series.

THE PERSONAL SIDE OF AMERICA'S GREATEST ACTORS

A series of articles portraying our best-known actors in their home life, and showing its relation to their struggles and successes. The series will open in an early number with the "Personal Side of Sol. Smith Russell," to be followed by four others, profusely illustrated by photographs and original drawings.

The regular subscription price of the Post is $2.50 per year. It is offered on trial for so small a sum simply to introduce it.

There are 16 pages every week, the same size as THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL, and as handsomely illustrated and printed.
